Letter dated 4 October 2002 from the Secretary-General addressed to the President of the Security Council

I have the honour to refer to Security Council resolutions 1312 (2000) of 31 July 2000 and 1320 (2000) of 15 September 2000, in which the Security Council established the United Nations Mission in Ethiopia and Eritrea (UNMEE).

Following the usual consultations, it is my intention to appoint Major-General Robert Gordon (United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland) as new Force Commander of UNMEE, with effect from 1 November 2002. Major-General Gordon will replace Major-General Patrick C. Cammaert, whose two-year tour of duty will end on 31 October 2002.

I should be grateful if you would bring this matter to the attention of the members of the Security Council.

Letter dated 8 October 2002 from the Chargé d'affaires a.i. of the Permanent Mission of Lebanon to the United Nations addressed to the Secretary-General

On instructions from my Government, I have the honour to transmit to you herewith a statistical breakdown of Israeli violations of Lebanese sovereignty during the month of September 2002.

The breaches of Lebanon's sovereignty that Israel commits on land, at sea and in the air are in violation of the Blue Line and of the provisions of Security Council resolution 425 (1978), and they pose a threat to stability and promote a climate of tension in the region.

I should be grateful if you would have this letter circulated as a document of the General Assembly, under agenda item 36, and of the Security Council.

Joint communiqué of the Eighteenth Regional Summit on Burundi

The Eighteenth Summit Meeting of the Heads of State and Government of the Regional Peace Initiative on Burundi was held in Dar es Salaam, United Republic of Tanzania, on 6 and 7 October 2002 under the chairmanship of H. E. Yoweri Kaguta Museveni, President of the Republic of Uganda.

The Summit reviewed the situation in Burundi in general and the status of the ceasefire negotiations in particular. Following a briefing by Deputy President Jacob Zuma, on behalf of the facilitation, and extensive discussion with President Pierre Buyoya of Burundi and Dr. Jean Minani, Speaker of the Transitional National Assembly of Burundi on the one hand and the leader of the delegation of CNDD-FDD (Nkurunziza), Mr. Rajabu Hussein, the Summit held an extensive exchange of views on the matter and made the following decisions:

I. Welcomes the signing of the ceasefire agreements between the Transitional Government of Burundi and the CNDD-FDD (Jean Bosco Ndayikengurukiye) and the PALIPEHUTU-FNL (Allain Mugabarabona), respectively, as an encouraging step towards the restoration of peace, security and stability in Burundi and the full implementation of the Arusha Peace and Reconciliation Agreement for Burundi.

II. Welcomes the commitment made by the leader of the delegation of CNDD-FDD (Nkurunziza) to resume substantive ceasefire negotiations without any conditions and on the basis of the Arusha Peace Agreement.

III. Decides that the CNDD-FDD (Nkurunziza) and PALIPEHUTU-FNL (Agathon Rwasa) should enter immediately into direct ceasefire negotiations with the Transitional Government of Burundi with a view to concluding a ceasefire agreement within 30 days. The negotiations should be conducted at the highest level by all the parties.

IV. Decides further to meet after 30 days to review the situation and, if no ceasefire agreement has been reached between the parties, to take appropriate measures against the recalcitrant party with a view to restoring peace and stability in Burundi and ensuring the full implementation of the Arusha Peace Agreement.

V. Directs that the CNDD-FDD (Jean Bosco) and PALIPEHUTU-FNL (Allain Mugabarabona) and other armed groups and movements that will sign a ceasefire agreement be integrated into the transitional institutions and other structures of the State including the army and other security forces.

VI. Calls upon the armed groups and movements signatories of the Arusha Peace Agreement to take steps to facilitate the integration of their forces.

VII. Directs the Implementation Monitoring Committee to monitor the process of integration of forces in accordance with the letter and spirit of the Arusha Peace Agreement.

VIII. Commends the Transitional Government of Burundi for the efforts made towards the implementation of the Arusha Peace Agreement.

IX. Commends the Facilitator, President Nelson Mandela, Deputy President Jacob Zuma and President El Hadj Omar Bongo and their facilitation teams for the efforts they have deployed and encourages them to pursue their efforts with the continued support of the Government of the United Republic of Tanzania.

X. Commends further President Benjamin William Mkapa and his Government for their support to the facilitation and for their commitment to the restoration of peace and stability in Burundi and in the region of the Great Lakes.
